NOTICE OF EX PARTE COMMUNICATION

Pursuant to Rule 8.3 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the California Public Utilities Commission (Commission), Everyday Energy hereby gives notice of an ex parte communication in Commission Rulemaking 14-07-002. On August 9, 2016 Co-Founder and CEO for Everyday Energy, Scott Sarem, Steve Larsen from California Strategies, and G. Andrew Blauvelt of the MASH Coalition met with Scott Murtishaw, Energy Advisor in the Office of President, Michael Picker. The meeting was initiated by Mr. Sarem and took place at the Commission offices at 505 Van Ness Street in San Francisco California. The meeting began at 2:00 pm pm and lasted approximately 30 minutes. This notice is a follow up to Energy Division Staff's request that Everyday Energy provide a more specific description of the ex parte meeting than provided in its original notice filed on Friday August 12, 2016.

The meeting was oral and there was no written materials provided. G. Andrew Blauvelt was going to be in San Francisco on August 12, 2016 and is not typically in San Francisco so it seemed like a good time to try to personally meet Mr. Murtishaw. The main point of the meeting was for G. Andrew Blauvelt to introduce himself to Mr. Murtishaw and see if Mr Murtishaw had any questions about the MASH Coalition. Additionally, the parties discussed the implementation of AB 693 and reiterated the comments and positions both parties filed with the Commission on August 3, 2016. To obtain a copy of this notice, please contact Scott Sarem at 760-607-7200.

Respectfully submitted this 16th day of August 2016, Carlsbad California
